Welcome Friends!

Holy Trinity
Lisa O'Rear

Welcome and Blessing

The guarding of the God of life be on you,
The guarding of loving Christ be on you,
The guarding of Holy Spirit be on you
Every day of your lives,
To aid you and enfold you
Each day and night of your lives.

-Celtic Blessing for Trinity Sunday

Opening Hymn Holy, Holy, Holy

H362

Opening Sentence

God is Spirit, and those who worship must worship in spirit and in truth. John 4:24

Scripture

A reading from Proverbs.

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
"To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.
The LORD created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth--
when he had not yet made earth and fields,
or the world's first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight,
rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race."

Lector: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 8

Domine, Dominus noster

- 1 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!
- 2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
- 3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;
- 7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:
- 8 All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
- 9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
- 10 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

A Reading from Paul's Letter to the Romans.

Romans 5:1-5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Lector: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the People
People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn God is love, let heaven adore

H379

Gospel

Lector: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to the disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Lector: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Homily

Prayers of the People

Holy, holy, holy God, in calling forth creation from the void, revealing yourself in human flesh, and pouring forth your wisdom to guide us, you manifest your concern for your whole universe. You invite us, as your people, to gather the world's needs into our hearts and bring them before you. Let us speak these words now, with one voice saying:

Holy Trinity, hear us.

For the leaders of the church, especially Michael our presiding bishop, Mark our bishop, Arthur and Bill our assisting bishops, Lisa and Dawson, our priests, and all priests, deacons and laypeople who serve the church, that they may reflect your unity in every aspect of common life we pray:

Holy Trinity, hear us.

That in giving us your Christ and sharing with us your Holy Spirit, you may help us to understand the loving synergy between you and ourselves, made in your likeness we pray:

Holy Trinity, hear us.

For our families, our households, and our communities, that they may be sacred spaces of communion and mutual support, which build us and strengthen us in grace and truth, we pray:

Holy Trinity, hear us.

Thankful for our world, which you have made through Christ, and renewed in the power of his resurrection, that we may be wise and careful stewards of all creation, we pray:

Holy Trinity, hear us.

In the power of the Spirit who joins our prayers to Christ's ceaseless prayers for us, we pray for the sick, the suffering, and those who stand in any need. We pray for Michael Bailey, a member of this parish, who is incarcerated at the Richland Correctional Institution. We pray for all victims of gun violence and for the loved ones they leave behind. We pray for those we name now, silently or aloud.....For the healing of all the world from hate, violence, and terror we pray:

Holy Trinity, hear us.

For those who have died, peacefully in their beds, or in the midst of fear and trauma, we pray that they rest well with you. Hold their loved ones in your arms and comfort them in their sorrow and grief. For all this we pray:

Holy Trinity, hear us.

Celebrant

Holy, holy, holy God, fill us with strength and courage, with discernment and compassion, that we may be your instruments of unconditional love, justice and peace in this world, that it may be on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

Adapted from Intercessions for the Christian People and Intercessory prayers.

Closing prayer

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 3:20,21
